

BEFORE THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF LANE COUNTY, OREGON

ORDER NO: 15-11-10-01

ORDER/ IN THE MATTER OF AUTHORIZING
AMENDMENTS TO AGREEMENTS FOR ON-CALL BUILDING REPAIR, ALTERATION, AND MAINTENANCE SERVICES

WHEREAS, Board Order 14-09-30-01 authorized the Lane County Capital Projects Manager to execute contracts with competitively selected vendors for on-call building repair, alteration, and maintenance services up to the amount of the authority delegated to the Administrator to execute agreements; and

WHEREAS, the Lane County Capital Projects Manager executed fourteen separate on-call agreements under this authority; and

WHEREAS, these agreements have proven to be an effective means of accomplishing relatively small, schedule critical work scopes in a timely manner and at a reasonable cost; and

WHEREAS, the total cost of the work completed to date under certain agreements is approaching the authorized limit of those agreement; and

WHEREAS, the County has the urgent need to complete several additional relatively small building repair, alteration, and maintenance work scopes with limited funds in the near future.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of County Commissioners of Lane County ORDERS as follows:

1. The Lane County Capital Projects Manager is authorized to execute amendments to current agreements for on-call building repair, alteration, and maintenance services as necessary to allow for completion of qualifying work scopes, provided that the work authorized is within current budgeted amounts.
2. The authority to amend the contracts includes renewing the term of the agreements as provided for in the agreements.

ADOPTED this 10th day of November, 2015.
